

Refund & Cancellation Policy

Refund and Cancellation policies determine the customer's refund in the rare event that they cancel a booking. We, as technology support provider has no role in financial transactions between customer and service providers on our website.

They range from relaxed to super strict policies, although we never refer to them as such with customers. It is advisable to go to Booking policies and cancellation policy of the service providers to see the policies available.